Come join us at the Lab. Here's what others have said about our other programming:

"Jennifer is the standard-bearer for group coaching"

Deborah Gray-Young, Chicago

"An amazing opportunity for coaches to expand their capabilities and really learn what it takes to be a great group/team coach. Practical and inspiring!"

"There are many courses out there that leave an impression of wanting to take your money by creating unnecessary modules or charging more for 1-1 time. Jennifer on the other hand, shows that she really cares and wants to give you value for your money. She takes the time to make your learning process as valuable as possible by offering quality time with her and being very generous with her knowledge, tools and resources. I'm glad I made the decision to proceed with this course as I know feel like I can readily put what I learnt into practice and have received a fair return on my investment as a result. Signed. Happy Customer."
